NO 19

THIRTY-THIRD YEAR.

WELLINGTON, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 1899.

Headquarters

For the latest novelties in Spring and Summer Clothing is at the store of D. H. & Co. Every department is brim full of new things, and the prices, quality considered, were never so low.

There have been many radical changes in the style of men's wear for this season and the selections we have made includes everything that you could wish for in the line of wearing apparel.

For Up-to-date

patterns in shirts, you should see our line of silkfronts. Their equal cannot be found in any other store. For cool comfort these are the goods to wear Prices $1.00, $1.25, and $1.50.

A fine assortment of negligee shirts with two separate collars, also collars and cuffs attached, 50c.

For the best negligee shirt at $1.00, see our elegant line with detached collars and cuffs. With such a variety to select from you are sure to find what you

Clothing and Furnishings

of the highest grade are the only kinds that find floor space here. In our hat department too, you will find many nobby styles at very low prices. The new shapes in straw hats for this season are away ahead of anything ever produced.

Our store is also headquarters for Bicycle Suits, Golf Hose and belts.

The Balbriggan underwear we show at 25c and 50c a garment is excellent value.

Visit our store and convince yourself that the best place to buy clothing and furnishings is at the Exclusive Clothing house of

Daugherty, Helman & Co.

COUNTY SEAT

OFFICIAL TRANSACTIONS AT THE SEAT OF JUSTICE.

Exchange of Real Estate—List of Marriage nice-Divorces Wanted and Granted -Doings in the Different Courts During the Past Week.

Lonellon H. Green, 30 years, Burton, power house will be erected, which wil Genuga Co., Nora M. Long, 31 years, J. C. Barelay, 23 years, Elyria, Anna mont on to Port Clinton and the lake.

John C. Rinehardt, 26 years, Lorain, provided and the men projecting the Ethel A. Wasser, 18 years, Wellington. E. D. Bannister and Edith Jago, aged flector. 30 and 27 years respectively, were li-censed to marry, Monday. The parties live in Grafton.

Court of Common Pens.

The following new cases have been filed since Saturday: Iral A. Webster, as administrator of the estate of John Holzhaner, vs. John C. Holzhauer. Money only. I. A. Webster, plaintiff's attorney. sa A. K. Olmsted vs. Mary A Houghton et al. Money, foreclosure of mortgage and equitable relief. Geo.

A. Chamberlain, plaintiff's attorney. Bertha Hopewell, of Lozzin, wants to be divorced from her husband, William, who, she alleges, deserted her in '91 and has not since contributed to her support. They were married at Martins-burgh, Va., in 1878 and have two grown-

Catherine Ann Ballou, of Lorain, has commenced suit for divorce against Jerome B. Ballou, who, she alleges, has been absent from her for the past three years. She owns property and wants him divested of his dower interest.

They have two sons. Mrs. Sarah L. Linder, through her attorney, has applied for a divorce in the common pleas court from her hus-band, Ismac N. Linder. The petition states that the couple were married in Elyria, on the 17th day of December, 1865, and that by said marriage two children were born. The grounds of divorce are that the husband has failed for the past three years to provide for her and has been wilfully absent from their home without cause. She asks that the court grant her a divorce and such other reasonable relief as he may deem proper.—Elyria Reporter.

Probate Court,

Fannie A. Woodruff appointed guardian of Nola Williams, of Lorain.

Kate Brewster appointed administratrix of the estate of J. P. Knight, late Agnes Killion appointed administrathe estate of Thomas Killion, late of Grafton. The will of Elizabeth Roehig, late of #### Lorain, admitted to probate. Agent for The Enterprise.

Mr. H. B. Beardsley, of Rochester, who has been engaged in the railroad business there for more than forty years, has quit that employment and has taken a position as general solici-tor for the Enterprise.

Mr. Beardsley is a good man and stamls well in his own town, and wherever he is known. We bespeak for him a generous reception by the general public. Subscribe for the Enterprise, and any other papers which club with it. Don't borrow any longer of your eighbor, but read your own paper. We introduce Mr. Beardsley to you to not know him, as a gentleman will represent truthfully the busi-in which he is engaged, and we again: Subscribe for the Enter-

PEOPLE MEMORIAL DAY.

Irish By Birth-Bare Talent and Attain- Manila letter, is a member of Company

The Toledo, Fremont and Norwalk Electric Railway, extending from To-ledo to Norwalk, a distance of 60 miles, seems to be an assured fact. The coninent clergymen and others, sent of the property owners along the entire right of way has been secured and the work will begin on the new line by June 1st. The Ottawa county commissioners have granted the necescommissioners have granted the necessivy franchise and the commissioners of Wood, Sandusky and Huron counties will act on the matter this week.

The new line will start at Toledo, pass through East Toledo, Milbury, Genoa, Woodwile, Hessville, Fremont, Clyde, Bellevue and Norwalk. Spur lines from Gibsonburg to Elmore and from Norwalk to New London will also be constructed. In Fremont, a large furnish sufficient power for this line and the line from Tiffin through Fre-The finances for the road have been little more than equaled the ordinary peace expenditures of the national govgress would not have been asked to add anything to the federal taxation. The Dingley law was sufficient for all norber, 1854, Mr. Pepper was directed to Kenyon college, Gambier, by his episco-pal friends, where he studied a year in the theological department. Then his wife joined him, having remained in freland to sign some documents relative to the sale of some property which he could not do before he left, being

> At the caucuses last Wednesday evening at the City Hall, the First preening at the City Hall, the Furst pre-cinct elected George L. Blinn chairman and W. G. Watts secretary. A commit-tee of five was appointed to nominate delegates for the precinct, as follows: Committee: C. B. Lindsley, C. McDer-mott, Robert Ward, J. T. Haskell, H. C. Harris. The committee retired and while out a motion was carried unanimously to re-elect H. C. Harris county central committeeman county convention: Delegates. E. C. Bronson, Alternates. O. P. Chapman C. McDermott, C. B. Lindsley, n. W. Davis, J. H. Rust, system. Prevention is easy. Scott's On motion the report was adopted. Fault Findings.

Emulsion

hosts of other diseases which attack the weak and those with poor blood.

The normal Dingley revenue has a ernment. If the war had not come con-

***********

Do you take cold with every change in the weather? Does your throat feel raw? And do sharp pains dart through your

Don't you know these are danger signals which point to pneumonia, bronchitis, or

If you are alling and have lost flesh lately, they are certainly danger signals. The question for you to decide is,

Have I the vitality to throw

Don't walt to try SCOTT'S

EMULSION "as a last resort." There is no remedy equal to it for fortifying the consumption itself?

off these diseases?"

mal purposes .- Boston Journal.

SCOTT'S EMULSION IS the one standard remedy for inflamed throats and lungs, for colds, bronchitis and consumption. It is a food medidue of remarkable power. A ood, because it nourishes the body; and a medicine, because it corrects diseased

********

THE FIGHTING FOURTEENTH. LETTER FROM

WHO WILL SPEAK TO WELLINGTON

Dr. Henry Cooke, the great preacher of the Presbyterians, John Scott Por-Kessuth were also among the speakers he heard while in Belfast. The student was not hampered by the lack of money, but enjoyed a handsome income. Mr. Pepper was trained for the profession of law, and his teacher in alconing was Lames Sheridan Knowles. location was James Sheridan Knowles, author of "Hunchback" and "Virginius." The Maine law became a subject of popular interest and Mr. Pepper wrote to Neal Dow for an abstract of the law; then in Belfast newspapers he published arfieles in defense of prohibition of the liquor traffic for Ire-land. A good deal of agitation grew therefrom, and when only nineteen favorably with the Aster battery. years old Mr. Pepper was sent from Belfast to Manchester, England, to a great meeting of reformers and philanthropists, the youngest delegate in a body embracing some of the most distinguished men of Great Britain. Upon his return, after consulting prompealed in the press for a public meet-ing to be held in the interests of this new organization, the United Kingdom new organization, the United Aingdom Alliance. The meeting was held in Music hall, their largest auditorium, with tasteful and inspiring decora-tions, banners and inscriptions. The tions, banners and inscriptions. The great speech among many fervent and eloquent was that of Dr. Lees, whom years after, when he lectured in this country, Chapian Pepper entertained at his home in Wellington, Ohio. Thus Belfast was the first city in Ireland to organize a Maine Law Alliance, upon hearing which, Father Matthew wrote from Cork, Jan. 14, 1854, to Mr. Pepper, addressing him as dear young friend, a congratulatory letter, thanking him for his labors in the movement. Giving up the profession of taw, Mr. Pepper, was sent to Glasgow Theological College, and in the family of President was sent to Glasgow Theological Col-lege, and in the family of President Morrison he enjoyed rare privileges in the infimate acquainfance of this scholarly gentleman and in the society there. The queen made her second visit to Ireland while Mr. Pepper remained, and another guest who intersted him greatly was Harriet Beecher Stowe. Coming to America in Octo-

The Caucuses.

under age, and not until he was twen ty-one could he send her power of at-torney to enable her to do this. There

The committee of five then returned and reported the following names of persons whom they considered suitable men to represent the precinct at the

C. B. Caner, J. M. Otterbac J. S. Mallory, A. H. Peirce, W. D. Hall, Hobert C. Ward, Geo. L. Blinn, F. A. Douglass, Wm. Vischer, M. A. Wilder. H. S. Bennett, R. T. Spicer, T. R. Hurick, H. C. Harris, D. M. Hull, Grove Howk, Calvin Sage. Geo. L. Couch, Jos. T. Haakell,

There is a stretch of very bad sidewalk on Maygar street, extending from the Big Four westward to the Pullman

There is an unsightly place just west of the Big Four on Main street, which needs better drainage and general "sticking up." The same may be said of Railroad street from Prospect to North Main.

The stock vards are in a bad location and ought to be removed farther away

The Big Four Railway Co. are beauti-The Big Four Railway Co. are beautifying their park at this place, which is commendable. We most respectfully suggest, in behalf of a long-suffering public, that they now proceed to remove their unsightly stock yards out of town and build a passenger depot on the site thereof and cease to obstruct their own passenger traffic.

pany M the "Baby" Company-One Weilington Boy in the Crowd.

We clip from what we take to be a San Francisco paper the following, rel-ative to the Fourteenth U. S. infantry. Francis T. Reynolds, the author of our ments—Trained for, the Law—Became a Preacher—Once Stationed at Wallington

—His Connection with the Maine Law.

Rev. Geo. W. Pepper, who is to deliver the annual address on Memorial day in Wellington ethis year, is a man of varied experience, unusual opportungles.

Manila letter, is a member of Company M. which had cleven men and one officer killed, six of the men being of Company M. which suffered the greatest loss of any company M. We give below the latest le of varied experience, unusual opportun-ities, rare talent and attainments. He ver Barracks to the Presidio camp is a native of Ireland, and has always ground and later moved to Camp Merfignant at her wrongs and oppression, and sensitive to the sufferings of her and from completely new material were of the south. It is made up almost entirely of young men.

Companies I, K, L and M were formed from material enlisted while the Fourteenth was at Camp Merritt, and most of that material was of this city, with a few groups of friends that came from surrounding country towns. Company I, made up almost exclusively of young college men and sons of well-known families of this city, is probably the swellest company in the Philippines to-day and in its average of intelligence, education and wealth and favorably with the Astor bettery.

FREE LECTURE.

High Sources-You Cannot Afford to Miss it-Note the Date and Time.

President John Henry Barrows, Oberlin college, will lecture at the Congregational church next Friday afterThere will be 10,000 men oon and evening. In the afternoon his ecture will be entitled "Samuel Adams, country,-Illinois College Rambler. He stands out like the lamented Phillips, whom in style and bearing he Treasury, New York. the house was packed from ceiling to when you see the stars and stripes frequently followed his splendid periods with spontaneous bursts of applause. Four thousand people, thrilied to the very heart, were loath to leave

March 26.—Maloban has fallen. Still are many readers of this paper who re-member both the chaplain and Mrs. the precincts wherein dwelt the won-

Chicago Daily News. Afternoon lecture, 2 oclock; evening, o'clock.

Ineffective Proselyting. Benny, the four-year-old member of he family, had been trained to believe in the deep water form of baptism.

This is believed to be the reason why e was trying to plunge the household cat into a bucket of water.

The animal resisted. It howled, and eratched, and clawed, and used violent anguage.

Finally, Benny, with his hands coverd with scratches and with tears in his eyes, gave it up.

"Darn you!" he said. "Go an' be Methodis' if you want to!"—Chicago Tribune.

N a careful chemical examination of the leading Malt Extracts of the world, the United States Government Chemists found

Pabst Malt Extract The Best Tonic was the only one of all that was absolutely pure and perfect. Others cannot replace

WELLINGTON SOLDIER

A Pass Into Manilla-Meeting of Other

"In Camp, March 24, 1899. been her loyal son, pleading in her in. ritt, it had but eight companies of your letter this morning, written Feb. lerests with eloquent voice and pen, in shout 52 men each. All these companies of 13, 1899, in which you ask me to tell ies were recruited up to the maximum you if I received it. I assure you I did and was very glad to hear from you But before I go any further, let me people. An only child, and with good opportunities for education, he studied at Belfast college, better known as the Royal Academical institution, when that city was rich in the number and tary duty.

But before I go any further, let me built up four new companies, which had previously existed as "skeleton companies," to which had been assigned officers who were scattered over the country for various kinds of semi-military duty.

But before I go any further, let me built up four new companies, which had previously existed as "skeleton companies," to which had been assigned as 12-hours' pass and went into Manila, and as I was walking up the Escolta, I passed a sentry who rapped me on the back and said 'Hello, Reynolda, old

of the Presbyterians, John Scott Porter, of the Unitarians, Thomas McGuire, the brilliant Catholic debater; Daniel McAfee, the idol of the Methodists; Whiteside, afterward Lord Chancellor of England, Chalmers, Guthrie, and D'Aubigne, the historian of the Reformation. Gavazzi, John B. Gough Kossuth were also among the speakers he heard while in Belfast. The student is triefly of young men.

telligence, education and wealth and the fortified town of Malolos, which the Spaniards have not been able to take for the last 30 years, and it will cost many a life to take it, but when it is once taken the trouble is about over, for they can get no more food, for the head commissary of the Filipinos is there and also their powder mill in located there, and that supply of course will be cut off. We start to-morrow and we are all eager to go, and, of course, all think that they are the ones to get through lucky. But, of

> There will be 10,000 men in the ad vance, the rest holding the lines to the south and east.

the Hero of Independence." This is more especially for the benefit of the pupils of the public school, though all charges of people are will be the found. We teenth U. S. infantry, Sixth and Third evening he will lecture on India. We ways a calm before a storm.

Tell mother to write as often as pos sible and I will do the same, but it is resembles. His prose-poem on Samuel very seldom we can get any writing Adams is well-nigh unrivalled as a paper on the field and we are generally model of classic English.—The Pulpit too tired to write, and after a hard day's fight, you, father, know what it No prima donna ever drew the is to go out and do guard duty all wealth, intelligence and fashion of ai- night. Yes, there is something you cago as Dr. Barrows drew them last cannot feel or imagine unless you have evening to the Grand Army Memorial been there and seen comrades fall service in Central Music hall. A few killed and wounded by your side, and moments after the drors were opened wondering if your turn is next. But floor. He traced in a masterly man-ner the sources of American national the color-bearer is wounded, all fear life, and so rich was his imagery, so leaves you and you rush forward, think telling his arguments, so apposite and ing not of your life or loved ones at affluent his references to history, philhome, but only of your flag that is osophy and religion that the audience down. And when again she floats in March 26.—Maloban has fallen. Still moving forward; 150 Americans killed drous oratory of the great preacher .- and wounded. Insurgent losses un known, as they earry their dead back emong the hills, as much as possible, but so far there have been 1,300 buried by our boys in the last two-days' fight. Tell Mr. Ashford that Lu is safe. He came over this morning to see if I was still kicking. Good-bye. Malolos is ours to-morro FRANCIS T. REYNOLDS.

Depredations.

Frequently property owners are noti-fied to strengthen and repair weak or broken places in sidewalks fronting Frequently property owners are notitheir lots. If the walks were not wantonly destroyed and one had only to replace stringers and boards wearing out by nutural process, it would seen less burdensome, but it is safe to say that nine-tenths of the repairing ordered is on account of playful or vi cious breaking by boys who live or the streets every night when storm do not make it too uncomfortable. The find a weak place, then jump and pry and work at it until there is a job for the street commissioners, and a bill of expense for owners of homes. This is only one of the reasons for wishing for a curfew law. The other is the permanent damage to the boy himself, his habits and character, by the education, unwholesme, impure, degrading, of idling on the streets at night.

County Convention.

At the Lorain county convention held in Elyria last Saturday, the following leket was nominated:

Representative, A. G. Comings, of Oberlin: prosecutor, Lee Stroup, of Elyria; commissioner, James Jaycox, Avon, county clerk, C. G. Washburn, Elyria; infirmary director, Frank Snell. Twelve delegates were selected for the state convention, two of whom it expected will support Nush and the other ten Daugherty.

Joseph Jacobs takes the place of F There was a lively bout on commissioners, there being seven candidates in the field, but Mr. Jaycox knocked

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

We strolled into Eugene McIntyre's ew place of business, in the Bee-Hive lock, one day last week and found him very pleasantly and comfortably situated for work in his line. He has an outfit of all the very latest machines and appliances for work, and, with his lifetime experience in the tinning busi-ers which can be drawn out at won, "My dear father and all: I received and when the trunk is open it presents the appearance of a bureau, closed it is only an ordinary trunk. The idea strikes us vs both novel and Near & Wells' drug store presents a ery nest appearance, after an artistic treatment by the painters and paper hangers and electric light man. A that city was rich in the number and variety of her great orators, whom it was his privilege and delight to hear. Dr. Henry Cooke, the great preacher Dr. Henry Cooke, the great preacher teenth, and it was with no little pride to specific price or the room of the price of the price or the back and said 'Hello, Reynolds, old how are you coming?' On looking around there stood Lu Ashford. I they have a well-displayed stock, and would not have been more surprised if the back and said 'Hello, Reynolds, old how are you coming?' On looking greatly to the appearance of things. They have a well-displayed stock, and would not have been more surprised if the back and said 'Hello, Reynolds, old how are you coming?' On looking greatly to the appearance of things. They have a well-displayed stock, and would not have been more surprised if had seen you or mother. We then to splicitus frument. Their display of went down to the Twenty-second U.S. hummocks and baseball outfits is espe

SAVED BY A POSTAL CARD.

Thousands who have written for one of the free trial bottles of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy have literally had their lives saved by a postal card. They got the trial bottle, and it proved to them that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was the only real cure for diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumathm, Dyspepsia and Chronic Constipation. They bought a large sized bottle of their drug ists and it benefited or cured them (the above is not an iele statement, but the result of careful investigation). You can do the same thing. If you are in doubt as to whether you have trouble with your Kidneys or Bladder, put some of your urins in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours; if it has a sediment, or a milky, clendy appearance, if it is ropy or stringy, pale or discolored, you should lose no time in taking Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy; it can be had of all druggista at $1.00 a large bottle, or six bottles for $5.00. It is without question the surest medicine of the age to put a stop to such dangerous symptoms as pain in the back, a frequent desire to urinate especially at night, scalding burning pain in passing water, inability to hold urine and all the unpleasant and dangerous effects produced on the system by the use of whiskey and beer.

Sendyour full name and address to the DR. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Rondout, N. Y., and be sure to mention this paper when a trial bottle, with pamphlet of valuable medical advice, will be mailed to you absolutely free. The publishers of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this liberal offer.

guarantee the genuineness of this

Closing Out Sale.

Croceries at Cost or Less than Cost.

Wm. Crosier will close out his stock of goods at first cost or less, by Saturday, May 13th

60c Tea, per lb40c	Ivory Soap, per cake 4
60c Basket-fired Tea. 35c	Shredded Cocoanut 10
40c Coffee 30c	Good Rice, per lb 6
35c Coffee 25c	Corn Starch, per lb 6
30c Coffee20c	Best Lard, per lb6
All package Coffee 9c	4 lbs. Gold Dust 18
Dutch Java Blend, 1 lb.	4 lbs. Snew Boy 13
cans, per lb15c	12 lbs, Salsoda 10
All Spices, per lb20c	Bell Starch, 1 lb7
Navy Beans, per qt5c	Silver Gloss, 1 lb7
Lima Beans, per qt 5e	Electric Starch, 1 lb 70
Fresh Yeast Foam 3c	Celluloid Starch, 1 lb . 8e
Morning Dew Succotash, per	can Morning Dew Peas, per can .
Wadsworth Table Salt, 5 lb.

Remember sale closes May 13. WM. CROSIER.

Phone 146.

*******

During the Spring Season we will sell all kinds of

Furniture,

at prices that are right

Don't buy until you call and see what we have got and get our prices.

A. G. & G. L. COUCH.

BINDER GAY famous MAUN AND LAND BINDER IN the best for the world. Prices will sur-TWINE from you will sur-TWINE from Chicago, Omaha

B. VANATOR, NOTARY PUBLIC, CONVEYANCER AND COLLECTOR.

with The French Printing Co.